Dear Clovelly Precinct

Clovelly Precinct Meeting 3 December 2018

Thank you for the minutes of the Clovelly Precinct, 3 December 2018. The Council notes the contents of these minutes and I am able to provide you with the following information in response to resolutions of the meeting.

Resolution 03122018(2): Could Council seek, if it doesn't think it has power to issue a notice and fine an owner for noise prevention, legislative change so that it can? The Precinct requests that it should simplify the evidence required along the lines of two times police attending for offensive behaviour or noise in a period of two months for prima facie evidence of a breach.

A Council officer has examined the Noise Control/Abatement provisions contained within the Protection of the Environment Operations Act 1997 (POEO Act), which is the relevant legislation for the issue raised by the precinct.

Where residents are affected by late night noise and the anti-social behaviour by occupants of neighbouring residential premises, it is the NSW Police that has the authority to address these issues under the POEO Act and other law enforcement legislation. Council does not have the operational capacity, nor are Council officers trained or equipped to deal with potentially intoxicated, quarrelsome, anti-social or violent persons who may be present, at private residential premises and are responsible for disturbing neighbours late at night.

Council's advice to residents affected by late night noise is to contact police at the time of the disturbance. If these disturbances are 'on-going' police have adequate powers to address these issues, including equipment seizure powers.

The POEO Act also provides that a private citizen has the right to obtain, from the Local Court, a noise abatement order in circumstance where the person is affected by offensive noise.

In regard to the particular circumstances concerning 103 Arden Street, Coogee, Council has investigated the refurbishment and use of the premises, sought legal advice and had that legal advice reviewed. The refurbishment of the apartments at the premises is/has taken place via lawfully issued CDCs (by a private certifier under Part 4 of the State Environmental Planning Policy (Exempt and Complying Development Codes) 2008).

Yours sincerely,

Amanda Mather

Community Consultation Officer
