Join Randa Habelrih, founder of Autism MATES for a free community information session designed for parents and caregivers who may support someone living with autism.

- Share your experience and stories.
- Learn about the different ways you can remain connected while being in a caring role.
- Find out about local support services and programs and connect with fellow parents and caregivers who truly understand the journey.

Randa Habelrih Award-winning speaker, author and founder of Autism MATES, a not-for-profit organisation that supports young autistic people by providing them with social inclusion opportunities to create a sense of community and belonging.
