PURPOSE

To produce a dynamic, high quality festival and event program for the City of Randwick that engages residents and visitors. The Producer Events is responsible for delivering a suite of signature and civic events across Randwick City which celebrate and promote local culture, connect residents with their community and attract visitors. The role requires creativity to develop the events program, experience in event delivery and leadership to manage the team.

The Producer Events will manage the delivery of major public events in an iconic location with beautiful landscapes. Council is currently reviewing its events program and developing a strategy and we need a dynamic person to lead the change to deliver the outcomes of the strategy. Randwick is a unique place to hold events with renowned and diverse locations and sites such as Coogee Beach, La Perouse, The Spot and Kingsford.

Randwick Council aims to deliver world class community events to engage our local residents, celebrate our beautiful beaches, coastline and town centres and develop tourism opportunities. The team sits within the Economic Development and Placemaking Department.
