The Coastal Walk will provide spectacular views over the Malabar Headland to Maroubra Bay.

The highest point along the Coastal Walk offering breathtaking 360º views over Malabar Headland and back to Botany Bay from a spectacular natural sandstone peak.

Spectacular lookout point over Malabar Headland to Maroubra Beach.

Steel access stairs providing safe access to the top of the sandstone escarpment with spectacular views.

Exposed sandstone rock escarpment traverses the site from north to south.

The coastal trail weaves through tranquil ESBS vegetation and exposed sandstone escarpments within the National Park.

The Coastal Walk weaves along a forest gully providing access through the wetter vegetation occurring on the southern slopes of the headland escarpment, with magnificent smooth-barked apple and dense stands of bracken.

The Coastal Walk will provide excellent opportunities for walkers to experience the Eastern Suburbs Banksia Scrub vegetation which has a wide diversity of interesting species.

Minor access stairs and stepped boardwalks provide safe access over rock ledges and steep grade changes.

Low level boardwalk along the eastern edge of the Eastern Suburbs Banksia Scrub (ESBS) vegetation providing a link from Maroubra Beach to the Malabar Headland Coastal Walk and to the Ford Road access point.

Low level boardwalk along the Eastern Suburbs Banksia Scrub (ESBS) vegetation providing a link from Maroubra Beach to the Malabar Headland Coastal Walk and to the Ford Road access point.

Low level boardwalk within the National Park adjacent to Eastern Suburbs Banksia Scrub vegetation.

Low level elevated boardwalk along the top of the sandstone escarpment, providing spectacular coastal views over Malabar Headland to Maroubra Beach and Botany Bay.

The Coastal Walk will provide spectacular views over the Malabar Headland to Maroubra Bay.

Southern pedestrian entry gate to the National Park, as no dogs are allowed within the National Park.

Northern pedestrian entry gate to the National Park, as no dogs are allowed within the National Park.

Trail located approximately 40 metres from nearby residential properties, resulting in zero noise and visual impact.

Exposed sandstone rock escarpment traverses the site from north to south.

Steel access stairs providing safe access to the top of the sandstone escarpment with spectacular views.

The coastal walk will provide spectacular views over the Malabar Headland to Maroubra Bay.