Have your say on local government reform

Randwick City Council's draft submission to the Office of Local Government on local government reform is currently on public exhibition for community comment.

The draft submission provides specific comments on the recommendations contained within the Independent Local Government Review Panel's final report and the Local Government Act's Taskforce final report.

The Review Panel report includes 65 recommendations for local government in NSW, including the creation of a 'global city' combining City of Sydney, Waverley, Woollahra, Botany Bay and Randwick Councils.

Residents, ratepayers and interested parties are invited to view Council's draft submission and make comments by:

- Writing to the General Manager, Randwick City Council, 30 Frances Street RANDWICK NSW 2031 with your submission clearly headed "Local Government Review submission"
- Emailing council@randwick.nsw.gov.au
- Visiting Council's special consultation website and lodging a submission using the online form at www.yoursayrandwick.com.au/localgovreform

The document can be viewed online at www.yoursayrandwick.com.au/localgovreform or in hard copy at:

- Council's Administration Building, 30 Frances Street, RANDWICK
- Bowen Library, 669-673 Anzac Parade, MAROUBRA
- Margaret Martin Library, Level Royal Randwick Shopping Centre, RANDWICK

- Malabar Library, 1203 Anzac Parade, MATRAVILLE

The closing date for submissions is 17 March 2014.

Randwick Council's draft submission and links to the final reports of the Review Panel and Acts Taskforce can be found at www.yoursayrandwick.com.au/localgovreform.

Residents are also encouraged to lodge submissions directly with the Office of Local Government (formerly Division of Local Government) on their website <http://www.dlg.nsw.gov.au/> before 4 April 2014.

Any one interested can seek more information by contacting Randwick City Council on 1300 722 542 or council@randwick.nsw.gov.au
