Through forums such as Death Cafes people have an opportunity to explore their thoughts and feelings about death, dying and end-of-life in a non-judgmental and compassionate environment.

Death Cafes aim to promote meaningful conversations and reflections on death as a natural part of life, with the hope of increasing awareness and acceptance of death in society.

Death Cafes are free of charge, open to the public, and facilitated to provide everyone an opportunity to share or listen.

Light refreshments will be provided.
Street parking is available.

Please note this is not a grief counselling group.
